

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES.

FEBRUARY 14, 1863.

Read twice and referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

AN ACT

For the benefit of Simon and Emanuel Bamberger.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,
3 That the President of the United States shall have, and is 4 hereby invested with, the power to grant remission of the 5 forfeitures of a recognizance acknowledged and taken before
6 honorable Bland Ballard, judge of the United States court for 7 the district of Kentucky, wherein Hemmen Franks is principal
8 in the sum of five thousand dollars, and Emanuel Bamberger
9 and Simon Bamberger his sureties in the sum of two thousand
10 five hundred dollars each, on which forfeiture and subsequent
11 proceedings thereon separate judgments have been rendered
12 against said Emanuel and Simon, and executions therefor are
13 now in the hands of the marshal of said district; the said Hem-
14 men Franks having been heretofore pardoned by the President
15 from the charge on which said recognizance was taken.

Passed the House of Representatives February 13, 1863.

Attest:

EM. ETHERIDGE, Clerk.
